

What is your role in Talent Match?

"My role is the Project Manager for Talent Match. I am responsible for implementing and overseeing the performance of the project across the Black Country. Ensuring the ethos of Talent Match is maintained and the projects Vision, Aims and Objectives are achieved."

Why are young people and helping them important to you?

"It is important to me that everyone has the same opportunity to be who they want to be, regardless of where they have started and what life has thrown at them along the way."

How do you see Talent Match benefiting young people?

"Talent Match is benefiting young people by increasing their confidence, motivation and optimism, enabling them to gain skills and experience and realise their potential."

"Tell me, and I forget;
Show me, and I remember;
Let me do, and I understand."
Confucius

Kim Babb
Project Manager

